PLAN OF THE LOTTERY. The Numbers from 1 to 50,000, corresponding with those Numbers on the Tickets printed on and Lubin's Extracts for the Handkerchiel, for separate slips of paper, are encircled with small tin tubes, and placed in one wheel.

The first 457 Prizes, similarly printed and encircled, are placed in another wheel. The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of Numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners, the Prize being placed against the number drawn. This operaion is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out. APPROXIMATION PRIZES .- The two preceding sale by and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the first 7 Prizes, will be entitled to the 28

Approximation Prizes. For example: if Ticket No. 11250 draws the $70,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 11248, 11249, 11251, 11252, will each be entitled to $400. If Ticket No. 550 draws the $30,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to $300, and so on according to the above scheme.

The 5,000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figure of the Number that draws the $70,000 prize. For example, if the Number drawing the $70,000 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets where the number ends in 1 will be entitled to $20. If the Number ends with No. 2, then all the Tickets where the Number ends in 2 will be entitled to $20, and so on to 0. Certificates of Packages will be sold at the

During the confinement of Marie Antoinet'e, the Queen of France, by the Jacobins of Paris, she was deprived of the use of the cosmetics with wh' b she was wont to give the raven hue to her naturally silvery locks; and history, in describing ber execution, represents her hair as changing from a jet black to gray color through the mental anguish she experienced. The assassin Orsini lately executed in Paris for attempting the life of the French Emperor, and ruthlessly murdering twelve inocent persons, presented the same apparently strange anomaly from the same cause. When Oreini was arrested his luxuriant locks were as black as night, but when guillotined they were of an iron gray color, simply because he either neglected his toilet or else was deprived of the usual hair dye he previouly employed to give them their black color. His friends, and the papers generally, attributed the change to another cause, of course, and we have no doubt that history will represent the effect as being preduced by the mental activity and agony be experienced during his incarceration. WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY. -I learned grammar when I was a private soldier on the pay of sixpence a day. The edge of my berth, or that of the guard bed, was my seat to study in; my knapsack was my book-case; a bit of board lying on my lap LIRANGIPANNI EXTRACT AND SAT- was my writing-table; and the task did not demand anything like a year of my life. I had no money to purchase caudle or oil; in winter time it was rarely that I could get any evening light but that of the fire, and only my turn even of that. And if I, under such circumstances, without parent or friend to advise or encourage me, accomplished this un-dertaking, what excuse can there be for any youth, however poor, however pressed with business, or however circumstanced as to room or other inconveniences? To buya pen or a sheet of paper I was compelled to forego some portion of food, though in a state of half-starvation. I had no moment of time that I could call my own; and I had to read and to write amidst the talking, laughing, singing, whistling, and brawling of at least half a score of the most thoughtless of men, and that, too, in the hours of their freedom from all control .- Cobbett's Advice to Young
